July 1 – Canada Day

July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world and to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes.

Christians, realizing they do not have a lasting home here, should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of this earth. God's kingdom will come only when all people are ready to let Christ's teaching guide and rule their lives and actions.

A priest in Toronto preached the very same sermon Sunday after Sunday for several weeks, the same thought, the same words, the same gestures, the same tone of voice. His parishioners were justifiably bored, so they sent a delegation to complain to the Archbishop, who listened sympathetically. Finally His Excellency asked: "Just what is the sermon about?"

The committee turned to one another with blank looks. No one was able to say what the homily was about. The archbishop smiled, folded his hands in a fatherly fashion and suggested: "Perhaps you better go home and listen to that sermon a few more times.

Preaching is a two-way street-- talking & listening*
