World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Grandparents and elders have an essential vocation and much to offer the world. In many cultures, including those of Indigenous peoples in Canada, elders offer guidance, share wisdom, teach and tell stories. They help us remember the past so we can shape a healthy future for generations to come. This is sacred trust.

Celebrate this day...with a visit, .. a card... pray for them... include them..... Love them unconditionally.... have them share stories....teach them

Hello Fr. Jordan,
Thank you for welcoming Chalice into your parish! Because of your ‘yes’, your parishioners were able to sponsor 9 children in need whose lives will now be filled with hope for the future. In Christ, Andrew

Confession – the parishioners of church in the Midwest built a very modernistic church. They decided to go all the way by installing a drive-in confessions. Drive up to a window, honk your horn, and one of the padres will hear your sins, give you a penance and absolution. The bishop did not like the idea very much but finally drew the line when they put up sign: Toot and Tell or go to Hell.

The next bulletin will be August 2/3 for the month of August Please check the bulletin as weekday masses will be cancelled in the summer when Fr. Charlie is away.

Increasing the volume of your voice does not increase the validity of your argument.
